

Since 1981, the School of the Rockford Dance Company has provided top quality dance education in a professional, friendly, and caring atmosphere. Classes are offered for age 3 to senior citizens in a variety of dance forms at unbeatable prices.

"Dance A Story" is a fun and educational experience for ages 3 - 10. These camps are based on well known books & characters. A great camp for the first time dancer or for children with experience. Elements of ballet, folk, and creative dance will be explored, as well as making props, using costumes, and participatory story time. Children will perform in a demonstration for parents and friends on the last day. Girls should wear leotard, tights, and ballet shoes. Boys should wear comfortable play clothes and barefoot or wear non-slip socks. Please provide a healthy snack for your child each day.

"Reading Readiness" is designed for young children who are ready to read or just beginning to read. Margaret Rennerfeldt, school director, teaches this camp. Margaret holds a Masters of Teaching in Reading and a Master of Fine Arts in dance performance and has more than 24 years teaching experience. She is uniquely qualified to teach this innovative camp which blends movement and reading concepts to enhance literacy knowledge and comprehension. Campers will explore movement possibilities with music, words, stories, and picture books. The final day of camp will include a presentation of what your campers have learned. Children should wear play clothes that they can move around in comfortably. Please provide a healthy snack for your child each day.

"All About Dance" is designed for children to explore several different dance forms as well as French terminology. Classes will include ballet, jazz, and modern based exercises. Students will learn about the basic elements of dance and have creative opportunities as well. Girls should wear leotard, footless tights, ballet shoes for ballet only. Boys should wear plain t-shirts, shorts or sweatpants. Please provide a healthy snack for your child each day.
